

BELOW IS THE LIST OF COURSES IN SEMESTER TWO 2021

If a course has a stated textbook you need to get our own copy (or have e-book option) so you can complete the course.

Please note Carey Baptist College does not sell these books - you can obtain them online e.g., Book Depository, Fishpond, Amazon or Church Stores (Ellerslie Auckland - Ph +64 9 525 1380 - they have some titles in stock and also do a discount for Carey students). You will need to order for delivery in time for the 26 July 2021 (start of semester).

BIBLE AND THEOLOGY	Required textbook:

MB6/723 People of God	Greggs, Tom. Dogmatic Ecclesiology: The Priestly Catholicity of the Church, Vol. 1. Grand Rapids: Baker Academic, 2019. ISBN: 9780801097898 e-book accessible from the library Green, Gene L., Stephen Pardue and K.K. Yeo. The Church from Every Tribe and Tongue: Ecclesiology in the Majority World. Carlisle: Langham Global Publishing, 2018. ISBN: 9781783684489 e-book accessible from the library
MB6/737 Romans		You need to have continuous access to at least one significant commentary on Romans. Refer to the Bibliography where there are many commentaries as e-books although many other excellent commentaries were placed on Closed Reserve in the Library and should be used for assignments.
MB6/740 Acts	No required textbook – please note comments	You will need a good commentary on Acts to accompany your reading of Acts itself. Choose either a detailed scholarly commentary (e.g. Darrell L. Bock, Acts. BECNT, Baker, 2007) or one that covers the technical details more briefly but gives consideration to application (e.g. Ajith Fernando, Acts. NIVAC, Zondervan, 1998). The library has both of those as E-books, so you can check them out before buying. There are more suggestions on the course outline.
